Eternal Humans and the Finite Gods is a comprehensive book that guides the reader into journeys within oneself and beyond. It introduces a mother and daughter who genuinely desire truth, and they first utilized religion to find it. What should have been a path of awakening instead took them down a rabbit hole of diminished choice, knowledge, and freedom. This culminated in Talea s mother being used as a tool to spread the truth via prophecies she received, and Talea was being groomed toward a similar path. It took great effort and insight to climb out of that hole and stop the manipulation, which Talea shows in her realizations step-by-step.Popular books derived from otherworldly sources rarely if ever critique the gods or angelic guides of those messages. If criticism is found, people often turn to another religion ruled by similar entities. Talea s book is unique in that she not only analyzes her mother s prophecies, the Bible s, and various other sources, but she also brings us outside of mainstream spiritual beliefs to a more complete picture. Figuring out who was spiritually directing Talea and her mother and the reason why were pivotal steps to gain back themselves. They have learned how to separate truths from lies, which religions and New Age spiritualities are notorious in combining.Research into the roots of Judeo-Christianity shows evidence in Egypt, Sumer, Turkey, and Greece. Talea uncovers historical and otherworldly identities of Judaism s patriarchs and Christianity s demigods, and she uses archaeological and cultural evidence as support. The transition from Judaism to Christianity was generally smooth because, as Talea asserts, their factions interweave almost seamlessly along with purposeful...
