Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Dearborn Group Tests of Intelligence: Series II, General Examinations 4 and 5, for Grades IV to IX Secondly, do not look at any one else s paper. Thirdly, if you finish before the time is called, hold your pens up for a moment to show that you have finished. Directions For Giving General Examination 4. When the papers are passed to you, please do not open them until you are told what to do. The first thing to do is to fill in the blanks at the top of the page. On the first line write your full name. Please write it as well as you can, so that we can easily read it. Then where it says age write how old you are. Then where it says month write the month in which you were born. (Pause.) Now after day write the day of the month when your birthday comes. (Pause.) Now after year write the year in which you were born. (In lower grades it is well to be sure that pupils know how to find the years of their births by subtracting their ages from the current year.) Now write your grade, the name of your school and city and the date. Now open the paper just as if it were a newspaper or a book. Turn only one page. (Illustrate, holding paper up before the class.) I. Picture Sequences You will find two pages of pictures. Each row of pictures across the page would tell a story if the pictures were arranged in the right order. We are going to look at the pictures and put numbers on them to...
