Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Jim the Jock graduates from Berkeley, he finds himself overqualified and unemployed. In a stroke of genius/desperation he uses his test taking skills to get a government job as a California Fish and Game Warden. His dreams of a well paid desk position are quickly shattered when he is assigned to a remote logging/Indian reservation as an active warden, under the tutelage of Bigfoot Robb and his dog Ordy. There, in this tiny little town, he comes to grips with his limited outdoor skills, and gains an appreciation for the land and nature. With his wife and newborn child, they carve out a life in this rural town where who you know is who you are, and outside law is hard to come by. This book shines with humor, pathos, and superb storytelling that declares a love of life. Whether battling the elements of nature or going against Old Zeb, the Mountain Man, Jock has the skill, stamina and humanity to eventually gain the respect of the people who live there in the wild west. But when one of the locals with a grudge starts to stalk his family, how far will Jim go to protect them?.
