Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .Education and Civic Patriotism. 3t Physical Education and Civic Patriotism. Elective. 5 Elective. Number of 40-minute periods per week. tTwo 40-minute periods for Physical Training; one 20-minute period (as a minimum) for Civic Patriotism. Note--The first two years work may seem a little heavy, but when it is understood that physical education and civic patriotism require no preparation on the part of the student the plan will be found workable. THE TWO-YEAR COURSE This course is designed primarily for all schools having less than six instructors, and for students in any school who are unable to spend four years in commercial work, but who feel that they desire to fit themselves for business. There are many young people of unquestioned ability thus situated. Unless provision is made to receive them in this work, the department of commercial science can be said to function only imperfectly. Great care should be exercised, however, in admitting students to this course. Generally speaking, holders of eighth-grade diplomas should not be directly admitted unless they have exceptional ability and are above the average of eighth-grade graduates. The two-year course, as outlined below, may appear somewhat heavy, and yet, when it is considered that bookkeeping, typewriting, and shorthand in the second year require little or no preparation for the class periods, it will appear that the course is not beyond the capacity of a good student. When this course is used in a four-year high school the introduction of physical education and...
