Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Directors of the New Jersey Railroad Trans, 1857: Co, to the Stockholders A quarter of a century has elapsed since the organization of the New Jersey Railroad and Transportation Company. Commencing with the earliest railroads in this country, it has passed through a portion of our history most remarkable for the progress of improvement, the triumphs of inventive genius, and the expansion of wealth and population. What a striking contrast is exhibited in the condition of the world at the present time, with that of the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, in all the aspects of moral and material greatness! Through what alternations, from deep depressions to almost giddy elevations, have our monetary affairs been subject! - resulting, we trust, though often through severe discipline, in true advancement, and in the permanent welfare of mankind. In this onward movement our institution has participated with the people in the variations of commerce and trade; sympathized with them in their business and social intercourse; and now necessarily constitutes an established element of...
