Discuss it earnestly, having in view not only the benefits possible, but the difficulties, expense and labor. Please let us know at the earliest possible moment just what the feeling of your Chapter is. We do not believe In unnecessarily multiplying meetings and conventions, but It seems to us very fitting that the Brotherhood men of the Empire State should meet one another in a state convention. Other states have held such conventions with great profit. Should a considerable number of encouraging replies be received we will at once begin planning for a good programme sustained by the best Brotherhood men we can get to come. We will leave no stone unturned to make...
