Though her mother distrusts technology, Percy loves her new electronic journal. She names it the Pomegranate but is frustrated by its missing password. On the advice of her friend Jessie, she seeks help from the instructor of an underground computer class. Mr. Hayden replaces the journals program, and it works but something is still wrong. Its guide dog, Byte is asking a lot of questions about Percys family, and he knows things that Percy has never revealed to anyone. When Mr. Hayden locks her in the basement of an old technology building, she uses skill and ingenuity to escape. Then she contacts her father with the Pomegranate, and Mr. Hayden is captured. As her family reunites, Percy realizes that they will need to live with a careful balance that supports her mothers ideals for a living planet and her fathers commitment to the development of technology. . . . And that is also a necessary balancing act for our own time in history. Pomegranate is the second of Lyndas Agent C Series to be published as a paperback.
