Explanation of Provision In general The provision creates health savings accounts (HSAs) and health savings security accounts (HSSAs) which provide tax-favored treatment for current medical expenses as well as the ability to save on a tax-favored basis for future medical expenses. In general, HSAs and HSSAs are tax-exempt trusts or custodial accounts created exclusively to pay for the qualified medical expenses of the account holder and his or her spouse and dependents that are subject to 15 rules similar to those applicable to individual retirement arrangements. In the case of HSSAs only, family members may make nondeductible contributions on behalf of an eligible individual. Distributions from health accounts for qualified medical expenses are not includible in gross income. Distributions that are not for qualified medical expenses are includible in gross income and subject to an additional 15 percent tax. The additional 15 percent tax does not apply after death, disability, or the individual attains the age of Medicare eligibility (i. e. , age 65). Eligible individuals HSAs Eligible individuals for HSAs are individuals who are covered by a high deductible health plan and no other health plan that is not a high deductible health plan. Individuals entitled to benefits under Medicare are not eligible individuals. Eligible individuals do not include individuals who may be claimed as a dependent...
